

BOS PICKS

Friday, July 30, 2010

Sing-along with Mr. McFeely of Mr. Rogers' Neighborhood at the MFA

Museum of Fine Arts

Pittsburgh is home to the Holy Trinity of American pop culture: Andy Warhol, George Romero, and Mister Rogers. A native of the latter's neighborhood, Hollywood screenwriter Carl Kurlander reconnects with his roots in My Tale of Two Cities. This easygoing variation on Guy Maddin's My Winnipeg features interviews with Teresa Heinz Kerry, Franco Harris, and Louie Anderson (who, despite Internet rumors to the contrary, is very much alive). Join Kurlander and Mr. McFeely of Mister Rogers' Neighborhood (real name: David Newell) for a screening and sing-along of "Won't You Be My Neighbor?" at the MFA, 465 Huntington Ave, Boston | 7:45 pm | $10; $8 students, seniors | 617.369.3907

Filed under: EVENTS